

Are you our new Northern Lights guide?

Holmen Husky Lodge AS is a growing tourist business. We offer guests from around the world nature-based experiences all year round, including dog sledding, northern lights hunting, extraordinary accommodations and locally produced food. In the past year, we have been working to establish our new profile and strengthened our digital presence through strategic campaigns and storytelling – while simultaneously taking care of several thousand international guests.

The travel industry keeps growing and we are facing new challenges every day. If you feel you have the right skillset, which – in cooperation with one of Alta's central tourism actors – can help the destination become more attractive and exciting to visit, this may be a thrilling opportunity for you.

We have a position available for a person with relevant experience from guiding.

Who are you?

We are looking for the perfect team-player

Drive: Strong desire and willingness to work in a focused way and ability to remain steady and clear-headed in challenging situations.

Independence: Able to work in an every day life that provides a lot of freedom, yet still be conscientious and take responsibility for your own and the company's development.

Responsibility: You do not shy away from responsibility and tend to see solutions rather than problems. Furthermore, you have a talent for service and hospitality.

Relevant background: You need to be experienced with guide-work. Furthermore, you need to be a good communicator, skilled in the English language and have an inner drive to help other people have great experiences.

The applicant must have a driving licence Category D1 (minibuses)

Operations

- You will participate in the development of the northern lights hunt experience in cooperation with the booking manager and owner.
- You will work in a team consisting of the administration team, the handlers, the housekeeping and the owner.
- Have the main responsibility for northern lights hunts; transport, storytelling, photography and general care for the guests.
- Coordinate tours in collaboration with the booking manager.
- Guiding during different kinds of dog sledding trips.

Development

- The position entails a lot of responsibility, where you will play a central role in the development of the experience.
- Participate in a growing tourist business in an ever-growing business.
- Work together with and guide people from around the globe.

How to apply

To apply you need to send an application to post@holmenhusky.no , together with your resume. In the application you need to tell us why you wish to work for us and what kind of prerequisites you have to succeed as a northern lights guide.

If you have any questions, please contact us by phone: +47 917 64 866

We will compensate you competitive pay- and work-conditions, and our flexibility will affect your own workday.

Application deadline and starting date: As soon as possible and starting around the beginning of September.